HOW TO USE THIS KIT

Lead with the audit, not the pitch.

Every email opens with something useful: a free, written audit of the business's online presence. No hard sell, no jargon, and no vanity metrics. The goal of each email is one reply.

What the free audit covers

- Google Business Profile and local “near me” visibility
- Website messaging, speed, and conversion basics
- Social presence and content consistency
- Ad spend efficiency, if they run paid ads
- Prioritized next steps in plain English, delivered in about 1 business day

Suggested cadence

| Day 1 | Day 4 to 5 | Day 10 to 14 |
|---|---|---|
| First email (Template 01, 02, 03, or 04) | Follow-up #1 (Template 05) | Final follow-up (Template 06), then stop |

Before you hit send

- Personalize one real detail. Look at their Google profile, website, or social page first and mention something specific. Fill every [bracket].
- Keep it short. Under 150 words. One ask: “Want me to send it over?”
- Stay on marketing. Brand, website, Google, social, and print. One topic, one ask.
- Stay compliant. Use a real reply-to address, include your business mailing address in the signature, and honor any “no thanks” right away. Remove them from your list.
- Sound like us. Calm, confident, plain English. We show our work and treat every client like our only client.

> Signature: every template ends with the standard Sunday Harmony signature, including your business mailing address and a simple opt-out line. Fill in the address once and keep it on every outreach email.

TEMPLATE 01

Established business with an outdated website

USE WHEN

The business is clearly established (good reviews, years open) but the website or branding looks dated, is hard to use on a phone, or tells an old story.

WHEN TO SEND

Day 1. Tuesday to Thursday morning tends to work well.

SUBJECT LINE OPTIONS

- A free look at [Business Name]'s website
- Quick idea for [Business Name]'s site
- [First name], your reviews deserve a better website

SUNDAY HARMONY CONSULTING TO: [FIRST NAME] AT [BUSINESS NAME]

Hi [First name],

I came across [Business Name] while looking at [service] in [town]. Your reviews say a lot: [specific detail, e.g. “people keep mentioning how fast you respond”]. Your website doesn't quite show that yet. [One honest observation, e.g. “On a phone, the call button is hard to find.”]

I'd like to send you a free audit of your online presence: your website, Google Business Profile, social pages, and the next steps that would make the biggest difference. It's written in plain English, takes about a business day, and comes with no obligation to hire us.

Want me to send it over?

Thanks,
[Your Name]

Tip: lead with what they do well, then one specific, fixable issue. Never insult the current site; someone they know may have built it.

TEMPLATE 02

Small local business with weak presence

USE WHEN
No website, a thin or unclaimed Google Business Profile, or social pages that haven't posted in months.

WHEN TO SEND
Day 1. Mention a nearby landmark or town to show you're local.

SUBJECT LINE OPTIONS

- People are searching for [service] in [town]
- Free audit for [Business Name], no strings
- A neighbor's take on [Business Name]'s online presence

SUNDAY HARMONY CONSULTING — TO: [FIRST NAME] AT [BUSINESS NAME]

Hi [First name],

I'm with Sunday Harmony Consulting, a marketing agency here in South Jersey. I searched "[service] near me" from [town] and noticed [Business Name] [e.g. doesn't show up in the map results / has no website listed / last posted on Instagram in March]. Customers are already searching. It's worth making sure they find you.

I'll put together a free audit for you: your Google Business Profile, website or lack of one, social pages, and a short list of what to fix first. It's in plain English, usually ready in about a business day, and you're free to do it all yourself.

Would that be helpful?

Best,
[Your Name]

Tip: keep the observation factual and screenshot-able. Small owners respond to "I'm local and I looked," not to industry terms.

TEMPLATE 03

Startup launch: newly registered or about to open

USE WHEN
A newly registered business, a “coming soon” sign, a new storefront, or a new business filing or social page with little on it yet.

WHEN TO SEND
Day 1, ideally 4 to 8 weeks before opening day.

SUBJECT LINE OPTIONS

- Congrats on [Business Name], and a free launch audit
- Opening soon? A quick plan for [Business Name]
- Before [Business Name] opens its doors

SUNDAY HARMONY CONSULTING — TO: [FIRST NAME] AT [BUSINESS NAME]

Hi [First name],

Congratulations on [Business Name]! I saw [where you heard, e.g. the coming-soon sign on Main Street / your new Instagram page] and wanted to reach out before opening day gets busy.

Starting from zero is a good place to be: you can get it right the first time. I'd like to send you a free launch audit covering what you have so far, what customers will look for first, and a simple order of operations so you're found from day one.

If it helps, our Business Launch package covers your brand, website, Google Business Profile, and launch graphics in one go. No pressure. The audit is yours to keep.

Want me to put it together?

Cheers,
[Your Name]

Tip: new owners are overwhelmed. Make the audit feel like a checklist that saves them time, not another thing to manage.

TEMPLATE 04

Walk-in follow-up

USE WHEN

You stopped by in person, dropped off a card, or met the owner or manager at the counter or a local event.

WHEN TO SEND

Same day or next morning, while the visit is fresh.

SUBJECT LINE OPTIONS

- Great meeting you at [Business Name] today
- Following up from my visit, [First name]
- The free audit I mentioned

SUNDAY HARMONY CONSULTING — TO: [FIRST NAME] AT [BUSINESS NAME]

Hi [First name],

Thanks for taking a minute with me at [Business Name] [today / yesterday]. [Personal detail, e.g. “Good luck with the patio opening next month.”]

As promised, I'd be glad to send you a free audit of your online presence: your Google Business Profile, website, social pages, and the few changes that would bring in the most [customers / calls / bookings]. It's in plain English, about a business day to prepare, with no obligation.

Just reply “yes” and I'll get started. Or, if it's easier, tell me a good time to stop back in and walk you through it.

Thanks again,
[Your Name]

Tip: name the person you spoke with and one thing they said. If you met a manager, ask who handles marketing decisions.

TEMPLATE 05

General follow-up #1

USE WHEN
No reply to any of the first emails above.

WHEN TO SEND
4 to 5 business days after the first email. Reply in the same thread.

SUBJECT LINE OPTIONS

- Re: (keep the original subject line)
- Still happy to send that audit, [First name]
- One quick thing I noticed about [Business Name]

SUNDAY HARMONY CONSULTING — TO: [FIRST NAME] AT [BUSINESS NAME]

Hi [First name],

Just bringing this back to the top of your inbox. I know running the business comes first.

While I was looking, I noticed one quick fix you could make today, free: [one specific, useful tip, e.g. “your Google profile lists closing at 5, but your website says 7. Matching them helps customers and Google trust the listing.”]

The full audit has a few more like that, ranked by what will make the biggest difference. Want me to send it?

Best,

TEMPLATE 06

Final follow-up

USE WHEN

No reply after the first email and follow-up #1. This is the last message.

WHEN TO SEND

10 to 14 days after the first email. Then stop and note it in your tracker.

SUBJECT LINE OPTIONS

- Should I close your file, [First name] ?
- Last note about [Business Name] 's audit
- Closing the loop

SUNDAY HARMONY CONSULTING — TO: [FIRST NAME] AT [BUSINESS NAME]

Hi [First name] ,

I haven't heard back, so I'll assume the timing isn't right, and that's completely fine. This will be my last email.

If you ever want a second set of eyes on [Business Name] 's Google profile, website, or social pages, the free audit offer stands. Just reply to this email or reach us at sales@sundayharmony.com and we'll get back to you within about a business day.

Wishing you a great season,

[Your Name]
